

Tovey Brothers – Newport

On Saturday members of the public and bereavement professionals took the opportunity to attend an open day at Tovey Bros funeral home as part of SAIF National Bereavement Day.

Humphrey and James Tovey together with colleagues were also pleased to welcome The Right Worshipful The Mayor of Newport, Councillor Noel F Trigg, who toured the premises and chatted with fellow attendees. Questions were asked about various types of funerals and about Golden Charter Funeral Plans.

James Leedam from Native Woodland - Natural Burial Sites displayed an interesting slide show on both traditional and alternative funerals.

Advice was also given by Mike Coombes from Hold out a Hand Bereavement Support, Caroline Herbert of E J Herbert & Son Monumental Sculptors and Catherine Corless of Lovingly Managed Bereavement Coordinators.

James Tovey explained that it was 'an excellent way to discuss funeral options and answer questions at a time when not facing a bereavement'.
